INFO-PACK

ARRIVING IN BUDAPEST / AIRPORT – CITY transfer

1. miniBUD airport shuttle is the best way, and you can book it in advance. The only inconvenience on the way back to the airport is that the pickup time is decided by miniBUD and they usually propose 3 hours before the flight / more information about this service: www.minibud.hu/en/gyik
2. taxi / average price for a ride is around HUF 7.000 (about EUR 25) for one way. You will find the taxi booth in front of Terminal 2A at the airport as you come out. The name of the company is Főtaxi. Do not accept the offers of unregistered taxi drivers standing at the arrivals gate.
3. public transport / <http://bkk.hu/en/airport-shuttle/>

Bus 100E (do not mix it with 200E, which does not bring you to the city centre) leaves from the stop between the arrivals gates of Terminal 2A and 2B. It costs HUF 900 one way (EUR 3), it is a convenient and relatively fast ride bringing you to Deák Ferenc tér, which is the main metro hub in the Pest side. You can buy the ticket from the vending machine at the stop, it accepts bank cards.

BUS SHUTTLES during dunaPart4

Both for theatre and dance program dunaPart4 provides private bus shuttles between venues.

Each day the first buses leave from Trafó (main venue) to the other venues. After each event, except the last ones every day there will be a ride to the next program.

To and during the rides you will be escorted by dunaPart's volunteers, programmers, and artists as well, you just need to follow the sign.

Better to be safe than sorry

Taxi – please call the above mentioned taxi company, they speak English or use the Taxify app.

Unregistered taxis tend to rip off foreigners!

Bars – especially in busy tourist areas watch out for your bills, that you only pay what you have consumed and you pay the price you saw on the menu.

Money exchange – at the airport the rates are very bad, so try and change money in the city centre.

Exchange offices and banks offer good rates.
